Dear Brother and Sisters,

Today brings us up to the very edge of Christmas. On the 4th Sunday of Advent we share the prayer of the great Prophet Isaiah: "Let the clouds rain down the Just One; let the earth be opened and bring forth the Saviour". Next, we are invited to notice the young girl named Mary who is asked to make the biggest act of faith in the whole world. She is shocked and she is scared, but she still manages to say "YES" to what God asks. Thank you dear Mary for saying Yes!

In these last few hours, as we rush to finish everything off for to celebrate, let's spare a thought and a prayer for those in our community who are struggling. Maybe they have the sadness of losing someone very dear to them; maybe they walk in darkness or in fear or sickness. While we try to be full of happiness, let's hold them up and strengthen them with our prayers. Jesus has come to embrace every part of our lives – the sad and the glad.

Let's pray that our hearts are ready.

The Christmas HAMPERS have all been picked up and distributed to all families in need. Wellsprings, St Vincent de Paul, Andrew Centre, John Pierce Centre and Dandenong Aboriginal Cooperative have all expressed their warmest thanks and gratitude for the generosity of parishioners of the St Paul Apostle Church

THANK YOU to all who attended the Parish Christmas Carols last Sunday evening. We also thank Children & family from St Paul Apostle North School, Parish Youth Band and Fr Chris who came with Frank to lead us in singing the Christmas Carols. We also thank members of Parish Men's Group who, together with Gay, Sandra, Carol and Beryl, have kindly assisted us in getting the sausage sizzle going during the night. Thank You

Last weekend we also had a Special Collection for Melbourne Overseas Mission and Catholic Mission.

Thank you to all parishioners who have generously supported this mission. The amount generated from the Masses is $981.15 and will be forwarded accordingly.

Baptism Welcome Next weekend we will welcome Elias Junweh Ah-Qune, Rylee Ilona Rampal and Jennaily Alesha Dostovaloff who are being presented for Baptism next month.

Spare a thought and a prayer for all who are grieving and for whom this is the first Christmas without a loved family member. May they rest in peace.
